O R D E R:

In the G.O. 1st read above, orders were issued formulating rules for regulating the recruitment and conditions of services of Village Revenue Officers for the erstwhile Andhra Pradesh State.

2) In the G.O.2nd read above, orders were issued carrying amendment to the orders issued to the G.O.1st read above, to include the Village Revenue Officers drawing Junior Assistant Scale of Pay as one of the feeder categories for the post of Senior Assistant in Revenue Department by suitably amending the Andhra Pradesh Ministerial Service Rules, 1998. It was specified that these promotions shall be only in the Revenue Department at the District level in the respective Unit of appointment and the said promotional channel would cease to exist after all the Village Revenue Officers drawing Junior Assistant Pay scale are exhausted. Accordingly, an amendment has been issued to the Andhra Pradesh Ministerial Service Rules, 1998 vide G.O.3rd read above.

4) In the G.O. 4th read above, the Government have issued orders fixing a ratio of 60:40 between the Junior Assistants/Typists working in the Revenue Department at the District level and Village Revenue Officers drawing the Junior Assistant scale of pay, for promotion to the post of Senior Assistant in Revenue Department at the District level in the cycle of rotation. This promotional channel would cease to exist after all the Village Revenue Officers drawing Junior Assistant Pay scale are exhausted. Accordingly, an amendment was issued to the Andhra Pradesh Ministerial Service Rules, 1998 vide G.O.5th read above.

5) In the G.O. 6th read above, Government (PR&RD. Dept) have established Village Secretariat System and created 11,158 Village Secretariats. The post of Village Revenue Officer (Grade-II) is also created to work in the newly established Village Secretariats.

6) In the G.O.7th read above, orders were issued constituting two (2) separate categories of posts i.e., Village Revenue Officer Gr-I and Village Revenue Officer Gr-II in place of Village Revenue Officer.

7) In the reference 8th read above, the Chief Commissioner of Land Administration has submitted proposals stating that basing on the amendments issued to the Andhra Pradesh Ministerial Service Rules, 1998 promotions have been effected to all the VROs who are drawing Junior Assistant scale of pay to the cadre of Senior Assistants and at present there are a few VROs who worked as Panchayat Secretaries and drawing Junior Assistant scale and transferred to Revenue Dept. as VROs are still drawing Junior Assistant scale without giving promotion to the Senior Assistant cadre as per G.O.Ms.No.514, Revenue (VA) Department, Dt:13.8.2012. However, this channel will be ceased once VROs are promoted to Senior Assistant cadre in the State. There is no promotion channel available to the VROs either to Junior Assistant cadre or to Senior Assistant cadre. However, the VRO post is not a feeder category post to any of the above posts in Revenue Department. The CCLA has requested finally a policy decision may be taken at Government level.

8) Government, after careful examination of the entire issue in all aspects, hereby order to fix a ratio of 60:40 between the Junior Assistants / Typists working in the Revenue Department at the District level and Village Revenue Officers (Gr-I), for promotion to the post of Senior Assistant in Revenue Department at the District level in the respective unit of appointment with the following cycle of rotation and conditions:
